Foodbank Update, from our Contact - "Thanks to those who have continued to support the Food Bank with both goods and cash. It is very much appreciated. Current urgent needs are: hot meats, jam, instant custard, peanut butter and toilet rolls. Other goods are, of course, gratefully received."

R.I.P. Joy Rowe - who was a distinguished historian and authority on Recusant Catholics. Joy died peacefully at her home in Haughley, on 7th September, aged 93.

24TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

"Not seven times, but seventy-seven times."

Very much in this difficult time, do Catholics need to come and be together with Our Lord; and this primarily means the Holy Mass.

For there, Jesus Christ is actually and personally present, hidden by the Appearances of bread and wine.

Where Jesus is, His blessed Mother is ever close; and she will encourage us in her motherly way.

Please note, that while some singing is being reintroduced at the 10.15am Mass, this is only permitted, at the moment, for the choir.
